

Player profile: Mark Cooper – Full Back

- A versatile free agent who can play either left back or right back available for immediate trial/contract
- Released by Bristol Rovers after two professional seasons after a change in the management team
- A brave, passionate and aggressive player who is good in the air and an excellent, strong tackler
- Good with both feet and with great close control Mark likes to press forward but is disciplined in positioning
- An intelligent player who has a good ability to read the game and is an excellent crosser of the ball
- Hard working and very physically fit and determined to continue to develop, learn and improve

What will he bring to your club?

- A great investment as a free agent with a proven youth track record whose re sale value could be significant
- A great communicator and a natural leader he was captain of Bristol Rovers at all youth levels
- Flexibility as whilst Mark excels at left back he can also perform equally well at right back
- Experienced for his age having already been selected as a named substitute on 11 occasions in League One
- From playing non league English football he is match fit and will join a club and deliver with immediate effect
